

DECLARATION OF IMPARTIALITY;

We, including all of our employees, declare and undertake that we will not be involved in any commercial, financial, administrative or other activity which can affect the appropriateness of inspection and certification activities as well as the independence, objectivity and impartiality of inspection and certification decisions and results negatively and undermine our independence, objectivity and impartiality.

and our management system and financial management are created and applied to ensure and maintain the impartiality of all of our works and activities, and our employees, continue to make their activities away from any kind of material or different kind of clash of interests, and each and every member of our contracted audit team undertakes prior to each and every audit that they do not have any commercial or other relation with our customers that will lead to a conflict of interest, and each and every member of our audit team our certification decision makers do not have a financial gain related to the decisions they give,

and consulting activities are not conducted within our related scope of our activities in order to prevent any conflict of interest that can undermine our objectivity, and we guarantee all of with our establishment policy, procedures, our committees, our understanding, our way of working, our values, agreements we make and by this document.